- ¾ cup medium-fine polenta or organic cornmeal (such as Bob's Red Mill)
- 1½ teaspoons baking powder
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons sugar

WHAT TO DRINK

SARDINES With the briny sardines, pour a crisp white wine with good hit of acidity. Romney likes the refreshing MERCY 2008 SAUVIGNON BLANC ($16), which is made south of Big Sur in Buellton, California.

KEBABS A red wine with a little heft can stand up to the lamb. Romney recommends the LUCIA 2008 "GARYS' VINEYARD" PINOT NOIR ($50), made by one of her favorite California winemakers, Gary Pisoni.

CAKE For a complete Nepenthe experience, serve LAPSANG SOUCHONG TEA with dessert. The dark, smoky, black tea (which Romney's grandma bought in San Francisco's Chinatown) was often served at the restaurant.
